

WISCONSIN OFFICE OF Rural Health

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

James Small Recognized for his Public Service by WI Fire Chiefs

The Wisconsin State Fire Chiefs' Association Gives James Small a Career Achievement Award.

James Small, Rural EMS Outreach Director for the Wisconsin Office of Rural Health, grew up on Washington Island and has spent his entire adult life in working in public safety since becoming a first responder in 1993. James has nearly 10 years of experience as a Public Safety Director and has served two municipalities as Police Chief and Fire Chief. He holds certification as a Paramedic, Law Enforcement Officer, and Fire Officer II.

James decades of experience were recognized by the Wisconsin State Fire Chiefs' Association at a banquet held June 24.

About the Wisconsin Office of Rural Health

The Wisconsin Office of Rural Health works to improve the access to, and quality of, rural healthcare

Media Contact: James Small
Title: Rural EMS Outreach Director
Phone: 608-265-8221
Email address: small5@wisc.edu

Unsubscribe worh.rural.reporter@gmail.com

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by byedinovella@wisc.edu in collaboration with

Try email marketing for free today!